Making Stories – Writing the Region

The University of Tasmania and the Institute for Regional Development in conjunction with the Makers’ Workshop invite you to be part of a two day public program:

Day 1 – Writing for yourself

Learn basic writing techniques by indulging your senses. Through guided workshops, making paper and experiencing the environment you will gain inspiration to write and learn ways of expressing beyond the everyday.

Day 2 – Writing for the region

Day 2 allows you to expand on the skills learnt on day 1: writing to tell others how you feel about our region. You will also discover some of the exciting opportunities available to you.

Location: Makers’ Workshop
Burnie

Dates: Monday 10 and Tuesday 11 February 2014

Time: 9:30am – 4:30pm

Cost: $30 for 1 day or $50 for both days
(includes materials, meals, drinks and activity costs)

Numbers are limited so be quick to register your spot by no later than Monday 3 February 2014.
